

The Town of Hudson presents
A Cranberry Harvest Tour with Lunch at Isaac's Restaurant
Tuesday, October 14, 2014
$69.00 per person

Your group will travel to Plymouth, Massachusetts where they will pick up a local guide for a fun and memorable tour. Learn the true story behind Plymouth Rock, Forefather's Monument, and more. You will also be going through the "heart of cranberry country." Your guide will explain how cranberries are grown and harvested, as well as sample cranberry products.

Be sure to bring your camera, this is a beautiful time of the year in Southeast Massachusetts. There will be a lot of photo opportunities!

Lunch today will be at Isaac's. This restaurant is known not only for their delicious food and great service, but also their scenic view. Your choices are Chicken Cordon Bleu or Broiled Schrod with Salad, Rolls and Butter, Vegetable, Cheese and Crackers, Beverage, and Dessert. After lunch you may choose to visit area shops and enjoy the scenery right on the waterfront. Includes: Transportation, area tour, driver's gratuity, dining room taxes and gratuities, lunch, and area shopping.
