Date: 10/16/17

Authorized by: Sgt. Davis

Contact: Shift Supervisor

On 07/15/17 at approximately 9:09 pm the Hudson Police Department responded to 7-Eleven, 230 Central Street for a report of a possible phone making noise in the Post Office mail box located in front of the store. Upon arrival Officers could hear the device. Due to the suspicious nature, the Nashua Police Bomb Unit was contacted and responded to the scene to x-ray the mailbox. Once the Nashua Bomb Unit deemed the mailbox safe, the mailbox was opened by a member of the postal service. The item was determined to be a cell phone properly packaged for a return and was secured by the postal service. The store was closed for approximately 2 hours, and was re-opened.
