On August 28, 2017 at approximately 12:34 AM, the Hudson Police and Hudson Fire Departments responded to a single vehicle accident on Kienia Road near Stevens Drive. Upon arrival the Hudson Fire Department attended to driver and passenger of the vehicle while police investigated the crash.

It was determined a 2010 Ford F-150 was traveling East on Kienia Road near Stevens Drive. The vehicle went off the right side of the roadway and struck a tree. The vehicle was operated by Devin Quinn, 21 years old, of Litchfield, NH. The passenger of the vehicle was Tyler OHalloran, 21 years old, of Hudson, NH. Neither occupants were wearing seatbelts and were removed from the vehicle by the Hudson Fire Department.

Quinn was subsequently arrested for Driving While Intoxicated. He was transported to SNHMC where he is being treated for serious, non-life threatening injuries. OHalloran was also transported to SNHMC, and later to a Boston Hospital, for serious, non-life threatening injuries. There is no bail or court date scheduled at this time.

The roadway was closed for approximately 30 minutes. The vehicle sustained heavy damage to the front end and was towed from the scene.
