On November 30, 2016 at 7:15 pm, a store employee from Walgreens, located at 90 Derry Road called to report that a male subject entered the store, displayed a knife and demanded cash. The store clerk complied, and the male subject fled on foot with an undetermined amount of cash. The male subject is described as a white male, about 6'0" tall, wearing a gray jacket with a hood and a mask covering his face. These photos were taken from the store's video surveillance system of the suspect. The clerk was not injured during the encounter with the robber.

Currently, the Hudson Police K9 is conducting a track, the Hudson Police Crime Scene Unit is processing the scene, and the Hudson Police Detectives are investigating the incident.
