Date: September 1, 2017Authorized by: Lt. Bianchi*Contact: Shift Commander

On March 3rd, 1990, the Hudson Police Department responded to a fatal hit and run accident, which occurred on Kimball Hill Road near Clement Road. The victim, Shelia Rosati of Dracut, MA, was killed in the accident. Witnesses stated that Rosati was on Kimball Hill Road when a pick-up truck struck her and fled the area, without stopping or slowing down. Witnesses stated they saw a, 1981-1990, Dodge Ram, either silver or light blue, traveling westbound on Kimball Hill Road, when it struck Rosati. The vehicle then continued to drive westbound on Kimball Hill Road. The same vehicle was later seen turning onto Bush Hill Road from Kimball Hill Road at a high rate of speed. The Hudson Police has not been able to identify the operator of this vehicle.

In January of 2004, the Hudson Police received an anonymous letter, identifying a possible suspect. However, this information could not be validated.

The Hudson Police is requesting that anybody with any information pertaining to this incident please contact the Hudson Police. We also request that the author of the 2004 anonymous letter comes forward. The Hudson Police wants to continue with this investigation to bring closure to the family of Shelia Rosati.

Please contact Detective Alan Marcotte at (603) 816-2280 or email Det. Marcotte at AMarcotte@Hudsonnh.gov or Detective William Kew at (603) 816-2243 or email Det. Kew at Wkew@Hudsonnh.gov.

If you wish to remain anonymous please call the Hudson Police Crime Line at (603) 594-1150.
