On July 26, 2016, at about 4:07 PM, members of the Hudson Police Department and Hudson Fire Department responded to Central Street (Route 111) by Park Avenue for a report of a motor vehicle collision with injuries.

Upon arrival, the Hudson Fire Department attended to the vehicle occupants and the Hudson Police began an investigation. It was determined three vehicles were involved and all had been traveling east on Central Street (Route 111).

A 2006 Ford F250 was stopped at the red light at Central Street and Park Ave. It was operated by Nicolis Iosua, 27 years old, of Derry, NH. It was also occupied by Brittney Soucy, 25 years old, of Derry NH. A 2013 Toyota Corolla was stopped at the red light, behind the Ford F250. It was operated by Meghan Rhodes, 21 years old, of Hudson, NH and also occupied by Lisa Rhodes, 48 years old, of Hudson, NH. All four above occupants were seatbelted.

A 1999 Honda Civic was traveling east on Central Street approaching the stopped vehicles. It was operated by Aaron Burns, 18 years old of Londonderry, NH. The front left end of the Honda struck the rear right end of the Toyota. The stopped Toyota was pushed forward and its front end struck the rear end of the Ford F250. Burns was not seatbelted. The Honda and Toyota had airbag deployment.

Meghan Rhodes, Lisa Rhodes, and Aaron Burns were treated at the scene for non-life threatening injuries. All three were transported to SNHMC by Hudson Fire Department Ambulances and the a Windham Ambulance for evaluation.

Aaron Burns was issued a citation for Negligent Operation, a violation. He is scheduled to appear at the 9th Circuit Court - Nashua District Division on September 1, 2016.
