The Hudson Police Department Criminal Investigations Division have been investigating numerous reports of counterfeit money being passed at local businesses. A total of three separate businesses reported receiving counterfeit bills. The bills were in 20-dollar, 10-dollar and 5-dollar denominations. The bills were passed during the time period from January 1st, thru January 5th, 2017. Anyone with information should contact Detective Roger Lamarche at (603) 816-2281 or remain anonymous by calling the Hudson Police Crime Line at (603) 594-1150. Hudson Detectives believe there may be counterfeit money still in circulation in the Hudson area. If you encounter money that you suspect is counterfeit, please report it by calling the Hudson Police Department at (603) 886-6011.
