For Immediate Release

Date: February 8, 2018

Authorized by: Chief Lavoie

Contact: Shift Supervisor

On February 8, 2018, at approximately 1328 hours, members of the Hudson Police Department's Patrol Division and the Hudson Fire Department responded to 2 Hampshire Drive, the Granite State Indoor Range and Gun Shop, for a medical emergency. Upon arrival, Hudson Officers and Fire personnel located a male subject with a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

The patient was subsequently transported to the Southern New Hampshire Medical Center for treatment. He was later transferred to the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, Massachusetts, for further care. There were several witnesses on scene and this case remains active and under investigation. The Hudson Police Department wants to stress that there is no danger to the public.

Anyone with information pertaining to this case, please contact Detective Wil Kew at 603-816-2243 (wkew@hudsonnh.gov), Detective Sgt. Tom Scotti at 603-816-2242 (tscotti@hudsonnh.gov) or leave an anonymous tip on the Crime Line at 603-594-1150.
