On April 13, 2015, at 12:29 a.m., members of the Hudson Police Department Patrol Division responded to the business of Haffner's Gas Station located at 215 Lowell Road, in response to an Armed Robbery involving a firearm. Upon arrival, officers learned that a white male or female subject entered the store wearing a brown colored hooded sweatshirt, a black and white mask, jeans, and tan colored boots. The suspect is believed to be between 5'07" and 5'10 inches tall, and between 160 to 180 pounds. The sex of the suspect is not known at this time.

After committing the crime, the suspect exited the store and ran in the direction of Market Basket, which is located across the street from Haffner's Gas Station. The store clerk was not injured during the incident and the suspect fled the business with currency removed from the cash register.

Anyone with information relative to this investigation and the attached images should contact Detective Alan Marcotte of the Hudson Police Department (603) 886-6011. Those wishing to leave information anonymously should call the Hudson Police Department Crime Line at (603) 594-1150.
