On November 25, 2016, at about 8:10 PM, Hudson Police Officers responded to Capris Pizza, 76 Derry Street where it was reported an intoxicated subject had left the area in a motor vehicle after brandishing a knife on a patron, just outside the the restaurant. The calling party was able to name the subject in question and describe the vehicle the subject was operating. The subject was identified as Sean HENDERSON, driving a grey Honda Civic.

Other officers also began to search for the vehicle and the subject in question. At about 8:20 PM, Sgt. Michael Gosselin observed the vehicle pass him, heading south on Clement Road. The vehicle appeared to elude him, speeding up and abruptly turning left onto Meadow Drive. Sgt. Gosselin was able to catch up with the vehicle where it stopped on Sullivan Road near Paget Road.

Other Officers arrived on scene to assist on a high risk stop. Officers received information the subject had mentioned he had a firearm in his vehicle as well.

Henderson initially was not complying with directions of the Officers. After several minutes, Sean Henderson, 27 years old, of Hudson, NH was taken into custody. No firearm was in his possession at the time of his arrest. He was charged with Driving While Intoxicated, Criminal Threatening (Felony), Criminal Threatening (Misdemeanor), and Disobeying a Police Officer. His bail was set at $50,000 Cash or Surety Bail. Henderson will be held at Valley Street Jail pending bail or his arraignment at the 9th Circuit Court, Nashua District Division on November 28, 2016 at 0815 hours.
