On Wednesday, June 10, 2015, at 1:16 a.m., members of the Hudson Police Department responded to the area of 147 Derry Road in order to investigate the report of breaking glass and loud noises coming from the structure. Upon arrival, members of the Patrol Division discovered two broken windows on the ground level of the structure. Additionally, officers discovered the wooden bulkhead door leading to the basement had been forced open.

As such, members of the Patrol Division entered the structure through the bulkhead door and began a search of the structure. Once inside, a female subject, later identified as Vanessa Lemieux, 29 years old, of Derry, New Hampshire, was located walking from the first level to the basement level of the structure. Lemieux was subsequently placed under arrest and was charged with three (3) counts of Criminal Mischief and one (1) count of Criminal Trespass.

Lemieux was able to post $240.00 cash bail and was released from custody on the same date of her arrest. She is scheduled to be arraignment on the aforementioned charges on July 16, 2015 at the 9th Circuit Court - District Division - Nashua, New Hampshire.
