On September 24, 2015, at about 7:23 PM, members of the Hudson Police Department responded to Lowell Road near 203 Lowell Road for a two vehicle collision. It was reported one of the vehicles fled the scene. Upon arrival, The Hudson Police Department began an investigation into the crash. Witnesses reported the license plate of the vehicle that fled and one witness followed the vehicle, which had heavy front damage, east on Pelham Road. Pelham Road is completely closed near 36 Pelham Road for a bridge project. The witness and other samaritans blocked the vehicle there, at the closure, until officers arrived moments later.

During the initial stages of the investigation, it was determined a 2012 Toyota Camry, driven by Ryan Spring, 25 years old of Pepperell, MA, was traveling north on Lowell Road near Oblate Drive. He was the lone occupant of the Toyota.

At the same time, a 2005 Chevrolet Silverado was also traveling north on Lowell Road. The Chevrolet was driven by Brent Gelinas, 51 years old, also of Pepperell, MA. He was the lone occupant of the Chevrolet. The front of the Chevrolet struck the Toyota in the rear causing heavy damage to the Toyota. Mr. Spring was treated at the scene by the Hudson Fire Department for a non- life threatening injury. He refused any further transportation to a hospital. He was seatbelted at the time of the crash.

During the continuing investigation, it was further determined Gelinas was impaired. He arrested for Driving While Intoxicated, a class B misdemeanor, and Conduct After an Accident, a class B Felony due to personal injury of to another. Gelinas was bailed on $500 cash. He is scheduled for arraignment on October 8th, 2015 at the 9th Circuit Court - Nashua District Division.
