On January 17, 2016, at about 3:05 PM, the Hudson Police responded to a reported stabbing outside 87 Central Street. Upon arrival, the Police located a victim suffering from a stab wound to his torso. The Hudson Police also detained a subject, at scene, believed to be involved.

The 35 year old stabbing victim, Freddie Buchanan, recently of Hudson, NH, was treated on scene by responding Hudson Fire Department Personnel. He was subsequently transported to Southern New Hampshire Medical Center. The injury has been determined to be non life threatening.

During the investigation, the Hudson Police Department determined the victim was stabbed by the detained subject. The subject was identified as Ronald Russell, 35 years old, of Nashua, NH. He was arrested and charged with First Degree Assault, a class A Felony. His bail was set at $20,000.00 Cash or Bond. He will be held at Valley Street Jail pending bailing or arraignment on the morning of Tuesday, January 19, 2016, at the 9th Circuit Court – Nashua District Division.

The Hudson Police Department continues to investigate this incident. It is an ongoing investigation so, at this time, there are no further details available.
