On Thursday, June 25, 2015 at approximately 11:54 AM, Hudson Police personnel responded to Saint Mary's Bank located at #3 Winnhaven Drive for the report of an Armed Robbery. Upon arrival to the scene, it was determined a male subject threatened employees with a knife prior to fleeing the scene on foot with an undetermined amount of money. (There were no reported injuries to employees or customers at that time). The suspect was last seen travelling northbound on Lowell Road behind area businesses.

Hudson Police personnel converged on the area along with assistance from New Hampshire State Police, Hillsborough County Sheriffs and the Nashua Police Department. Hudson Police K9 Officer Connor and his K9 partner "Looch" initiated a track in an effort to locate the suspect. A few moments later, the suspect was located and apprehended without incident on Winn Ave. (The suspect also was not injured when apprehended).

The suspect was subsequently identified as follows:

Daniel Quinn
46-Years-Old
Nashua, New Hampshire

At this time, Quinn is in Hudson Police Department custody and will be charged with Robbery, a Class A Felony and Attempted Kidnapping, a Class B Felony.
