On July 13, 2016, at about 5:23 PM, Officers from the Hudson Police Department responded to 36 Webster Street for a distraught subject armed with a firearm. The residence was evacuated of other occupants and the road was closed to traffic. The Southern New Hampshire Special Operations Unit was activated and responded to the scene. A team negotiator was able to talk the subject into surrendering. No one was injured. The subject was taken to SNHMC for observation. There are no pending charges at this time.
